JUDGE C. W. McANINCH TALKS IN REGARD TO STATE HIGHWAY.

SOUTHERN ROUTE HAD A MEETING

Mr. Hill, the Engineer, Will Begin the Work of Locating the Road on September 18th, Starting Out From St. Louis.

County Judges McAninch, Haggard and Danforth, Hon. E. E. Johnston and Ben Gorrell returned this morning from Jefferson City, where they attended the road meeting yesterday. Presiding Judge C. W. McAninch, of the county court, was seen by the Democrat-Sentinel soon after his arrival, and he talked enthusiastically of the meeting, a detailed report of which is printed on another page of this issue.

"After the general meeting, at which the three routes were considered, the delegates who were there in the interest of the southern route, which will pass through Pettis county, held a meeting in the hall of the house of representatives," said Judge McAninch, "and a general discussion of the matter in hand followed."

"The engineer, Mr. Hill, will begin work on the southern route on September 18. He will start from St. Louis and work west to Kansas City. "There had been some little controversy as to how the road through the different counties is to be joined up. For instance, possibly Pettis county should desire to build through the northern portion of the county and Johnson county through the southern portion, so at what particular point should they come together? It was decided to leave all this to Mr. Hill, the engineer, who will lay out the entire route, subject, possibly, to certain local changes."

"When Mr. Hill has reached Kansas City and completed his preliminary survey, he will notify the county clerks of the several counties through which the road is to pass. The clerks will notify the respective county courts, and they will go over the line as surveyed through their counties and either approve or suggest changes. It will then be up to the people of the different counties to hold another meeting and perfect their plans for the construction of the highway."

"The people of Pettis county should not lose sight of one thing. The enterprise is a truly desirable one, but it is going to take money to build it, and the people who own land along the road will be expected to contribute liberally."

"Pettis county will be given state aid to the extent of $25,000, but it is by no means assured that the entire sum can be used for the highway, as other road districts may ask for a portion of the money."

"After a general meeting of the southern road advocates has been held the people of the respective counties may petition their county courts to take such action as may be deemed advisable."

"While the road is a good thing, and Pettis county wants it, do not lose sight of the fact that we will have to pay something to get it."

RATE CASE OPINION

Federal Judge Pritchard Stands by Former Order.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 27.—Judge Pritchard, of the United States circuit court, in an opinion today in the rate case of the Southern railway against the corporation commission and attorney general of North Carolina, upholds the jurisdiction of his court in the issuance of the recent injunction against officials during the railroad rate controversy and declares that it is not one against a state within the meaning of the eleventh amendment to the federal constitution.

Adam Fischer Very Ill.

Adam Fischer is dangerously ill with strangulated hernia at his home in Northeast Sedalia. He is under the care of Dr. Camp, who today pronounced the patient's condition critical. It is possible that Mr. Fischer will be removed to a hospital.

Mr. Fischer was later removed to Maywood hospital, where he was operated upon at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Drs. Shirk & Cole.

Charlie Taylor at Dallas.

Charles L. Taylor, a former Sedalia jeweler, later of St. Louis and employed as inspector of time on the M. K. & T. is now at Dallas, Texas, where he is keeping books in a hotel conducted by Miss Kate Doyle.

Mr. Taylor has been in poor health for some time, but he is now greatly improved, so he advises friends here, and his many acquaintances will be pleased to learn of the fact.

F. L. Hughes and Attorney Holmes will leave the latter part of this week for a visit of several weeks at the Jamestown exposition and other places in that part of the country.

BUILD A $20,000 CHURCH

IMPORTANT MEETING TO THAT END WAS HELD LAST EVENING.

SUM OF $15,000 IS NOW IN HAND

A Canvass Is Now Being Made to Raise an Additional $5,000—Plans for the Edifice Are Now Being Prepared.

A general representation of the parishioners of St. Patrick's church was held at the school hall on East Fourth street last night to arrange plans for the building of a $20,000 church edifice at the corner of Fourth street and Washington avenue.

Funds to the amount of about $15,000 are now on hand, and a canvass among the church members is now being taken with a view of raising an additional $5,000.

The plans for the building are now being prepared and will be returned here the latter part of next month, and if favorable to the building committee, the contract for the building of the church will be let immediately afterward.

The building is to be of brick, with stone trimmings. It will be built on the massive foundation which was laid many years ago, when the church members abandoned the project of erecting a church building and let the foundation remain.

The edifice will be 125 feet in length with a width of 55 feet, and under it will be a large basement, with cement floor, which will be utilized for entertainments and the like.

The general committee, which will approve the plans, follows: H. L. Moore, Patrick Curran, Mike Mullen, Patrick O'Connell, R. D. McCubbin, J. D. Murphy, J. L. Sullivan and J. M. Dohel.

The $20,000 to be spent for the building of the church is entirely exclusive of the cost of the fixtures to be installed after the building is erected.

BURIAL OF A TRAINMAN

Services Over the Remains of Mr. Joseph A. Chettle.

The last sad rites over the remains of J. A. Chettle, a former Katy brakeman, who died Sunday, were held at the family residence, 923 East Third street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Clarke Baker officiating. Interment was made in the city cemetery and the pallbearers were selected from the Odd Fellows, Trainmen and Knights of Pythias.

A large assemblage of friends and railroad men and members of auxiliaries to railroad organizations attended the services, while some beautiful and exquisite floral offerings rested on the casket.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH

They Were Hemmed in on All Sides at Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City, Aug. 27.—Searching for an exit from a death trap that confronted them and hemmed in on all sides, four persons were burned to death today in a fire on East Grand avenue.

The dead are Lillian Ray, Virgie Wallace, Sadie and Walter Ward.

St. Louis "Drummer" Dead.

Mexico, Mo., Aug. 27.—J. N. Riggs, a traveling representative of the Shigo Iron works, St. Louis, died suddenly of epilepsy in a physician's office here yesterday.

WILL HAVE SEDALIA DAY

COMMITTEE IS CANVASSING MERCHANTS OF CITY THIS AFTERNOON.

ONLY FOUR HOUSES TO OBJECT

Almost Unanimous in Favor of Tuesday, October 8—Fair Board Will Settle the Matter on Friday.

Col. M. V. Carroll, superintendent of the publicity department of the state fair; J. W. Mellor, secretary of the Business Men's association, and Hiram A. Carter, president of the Retail Clerks' association, are canvassing the city today to ascertain the views of the local business men regarding having what shall be known as "Sedalia Day" the week of the state fair, and expressing a preference as to what day of the week shall be so designated.

The understanding is that if we have a "Sedalia day" the business men who acquiesce will close their respective establishments for entire day, thus permitting both employers and employees to attend the fair.

Col. Carroll was seen this afternoon and stated to the Democrat-Sentinel that of the sixty-two heads of establishments seen up to that time all but four had favored having a "Sedalia Day," and almost without exception Tuesday, October 8, is the day favored.

Four business houses positively refused to enter into any agreement that would result in their closing their establishments the entire day. Of these four, two are dry goods houses, one is a grocery store and the other is a boot and shoe house.

In each of these four instances it was stated, however, that the clerks in the different houses would be given every opportunity to attend the fair, some going one day and some another, but a sufficient force will be retained in each establishment to transact the day's business.

There were still a number of business men to see at the hour the Democrat-Sentinel went to press, but the committee had learned enough to make it almost certain that we will have a "Sedalia Day," and that Tuesday will be the day designated.

The directors of the fair will meet at the office of Secretary Rippey here on Friday of this week, when the matter will be definitely settled, and "Sedalia Day" will be properly advertised as one of the big days of the fair.

"MIKE" CADLE'S GOOD WORK

Won a Strike for Engineers Who Were Out Only 17 Hours.

Information was received here yesterday that the strike of all engineers on the N. & N. W. railway in Iowa had been amicably settled, the principal mediator being M. W. Cadle, of this city, first grand assistant chief engineer of the E. of L. E.

The men struck for shorter hours and increased pay, and seventeen hours after they went out all returned to work with their demands acceded to by the company.

This is the shortest strike known in the history of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Mr. Cadle, after a settlement of the strike, returned to St. Louis, where the general adjustment committee of the Missouri Pacific engineers is now in session.

THERE WILL BE NO STRIKE

Chicago Packers Concede Part of Teamsters' Demands.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Danger of a strike at the stock yards was removed last night when the packing house teamsters accepted an offer from the packers on all except two points, which relate to overtime and Sunday work.

The packers offered an additional advance in wages to that previously presented and also changed the working conditions.

Going Back After 25 Years.

John P. Ridenour, a prominent farmer and extensive real estate dealer of Green Ridge, left Monday evening for a visit to his old home at Wash, Ind.

Mr. Ridenour has not visited the scenes of his childhood for twenty-five years, and goes to attend a reunion of the Ridenour family. He expects to be gone ten days or two weeks.

Police Court Cases.

Susie Payne and Maggie Proctor, regresses, were fined $10 each for keeping late hours by Judge Graham this morning. A plain drunk was fined the usual amount, $5.

FRAUD THROUGH MAILS

THE MAN ARRESTED AT OTTUMWA HAS "BOBBED" UP AGAIN.

GIVES ANOTHER BOND OF $2,500

This Time He Was Arraigned at Home Town, Carthage, Where His Father Conducts Harrington House.

The arrest of Walter Harrington at Ottumwa, Mo., last Friday morning, as previously chronicled in these columns, is a bigger thing than a good many people suspected at the time. Regarding Harrington, the Kansas City Times of this morning had the following dispatch from Carthage:

"Walter Harrington, son of C. O. Harrington, proprietor of the Harrington house here, pleaded guilty today to devising a scheme to defraud through the use of the mails. When arraigned before the United States commissioner, E. F. Keyton, here this afternoon, he furnished bail for $2,500. His case will be heard in the United States district court here next January."

"Harrington was captured while breaking into the office of the Pacific Express company at Ottumwa, Mo., at 4 o'clock last Friday morning. Walter Kemp, a detective, was hidden in the office and after a hard fight arrested Harrington. Harrington's head was bandaged when he appeared before Commissioner Keyton here today."

"For several weeks men have been beating the express companies by ordering jewelry and other goods sent to a station C. O. D., and then breaking into the depot and stealing the packages. The package that caused Harrington's downfall was received at Ottumwa several days ago, addressed to C. N. Steinson, on which there was a collection of $400."

DID A JOB IN SEDALIA

Firm That Caused a Strike in Kansas City Monday.

Four hundred and twelve workmen employed on the Bank of Commerce building at Kansas City struck yesterday because of "open shop" tinners being employed on the building.

The Zahner Manufacturing company, of Kansas City, is doing the tin work. This is the company that last week completed the tin work on the Katy's new paint shop here, and after the completion of the work the foreman endeavored to secure local union tinners from this city for the Kansas City job, but the anticipation of a strike caused the men to refuse employment.

THANKED GOD AND TROOPS

Because It Has Been Possible to Maintain Peace So Long.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—Emperor Wilhelm, in replying to the address of welcome by the burgomaster of Hanover yesterday, said:

"We have to thank a gracious dispensation of Heaven and also the swords of our trusty troops that it has been possible to maintain peace so long."

Will Was Probated.

The last will of Henry M. Vance was admitted to probate by Judge Kennedy today. Deceased left everything to his wife, Mary A. Vance who was appointed executrix.

ABOUT THE SOAP CLUBS

AND THE MAN WHO WANTS PROMOTERS TO PAY RETAIL MERCHANTS' LICENSE.

A STORY OF TOBACCO TAGS ALSO

Alderman Jim DeJarnett All Right Now, Even if He Was a Little Late in Occupying Seat in the Band Wagon.

"Say, do you know Jim DeJarnett, the First ward alderman?" asked an old-timer of the city of a Democrat-Sentinel reporter last evening.

"Yes, I know Jim," answered the writer, "but why did you ask?" "Well," continued the old-timer, "I was just thinking of Jim and his recently introduced resolution at the city council to compel all soap clubs and other clubs of the city who buy goods outside of Sedalia to pay the same license as does the retail dealer."

"That's commendable, it's true, and if it had come from some other alderman than Jim DeJarnett it wouldn't have been so ridiculous." "But what has all of that to do with my knowing Jim DeJarnett?" asked the Democrat-Sentinel man.

"Oh, nothing in particular. I was just going to tell you that three-fourths of the articles of furniture in Jim DeJarnett's home were obtained on the tobacco tag plan, and were not purchased of the local dealers, for whose welfare the genial Jim is now so solicitous."

"Of course, it's all right. Jim saved up and bought up the tags, hundreds and thousands of them, as he had a perfect right to do, and sent them to the manufacturers of the tobacco, who had offered different articles of furniture as premiums for so many tags."

"Jim scooped in a great many of these prizes, as you will have to admit if you pay a visit to his cosy home, but I'm glad that he has reformed and in future will patronize the local furniture men, instead of sending away for what he may desire in their line."

"I'm for the resolution to make the soap clubs pay a license, but every time I think of Jim DeJarnett as the daddy of the resolution I can't help but smile."

MR. FISKE TO PLAY HERE

Will Open Three New Houses in the D. Wood Circuit.

Dr. H. W. Wood has arranged with Mrs. Fiske, of the Manhattan Co., to present "The New York Idea" at his local play house on November 29.

Mrs. Fiske comes west to play in ten theatres in the Wood circuit, in which there is not a single small town, and on the trip she will open no less than three new playhouses, viz.: Joplin, Mo., Muskogee, I. T., and Waterloo, Ia.

Other dates for Mrs. Fiske are: Wichita, Kas., November 25; Muskogee, November 27; Joplin, November 28, and thence to Sedalia.

From here the company goes to Waterloo, necessitating a special train over the Katy from Sedalia to Hannibal.

A $40,000,000 BOND ISSUE

To Be Taken by Syndicate in New York Financial District.

New York, Aug. 27.—It is announced that a syndicate of leading financial houses in the financial district of New York have formed a syndicate, which includes the house of J. P. Morgan & Co., to bid for the entire $40,000,000 bond issue of New York city at 4 1/2 per cent interest.

It was pointed out that the failure of this issue would be akin to disaster, and for that reason it is asserted the financial district decided to make it a success.

NELSON MORRIS DEAD

He Was a Prominent Packer in the City of Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Nelson Morris, the well known packer, died today, after an illness of several weeks.

He was a victim of heart disease, complicated with kidney trouble.

Burial of Mr. Williams.

The funeral of J. M. Williams, better known as Matt Williams, who died Sunday, was held from the family residence, east of town, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and burial was made at Smithton, instead of Clifton City. The pall bearers were selected from friends of the family and three from Russell Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America, in which order deceased carried $1,000 insurance.

Only Routine Business.

Russell camp No. 2065, M. W. A., met in regular session last night, but only routine business was transacted.

FALL MAY PROVE FATAL

AGED SECTION MAN WAS FOUND IN UNCONSCIOUS CONDITION TODAY.

FELL OFF A PORCH DURING NIGHT

Taken to the M. K. & T. Hospital, but the Termination of the Case Cannot Be Told at This Writing.

John Spooler, an aged section laborer for the Missouri Pacific in this city, boarding and rooming at the home of Mrs. A. Ashbrook, Fourth street and Hancock avenue, was found unconscious, with a fractured left arm, a fractured left hip and badly lacerated head, in the side yard of Mrs. Ashbrook's residence by the mistress of the place at 4 o'clock this morning.

He was carried into the house and the Katy ambulance called. The patient was removed to the company hospital, where his injuries were pronounced dangerous, and at last reports this afternoon he had regained only partial consciousness.

Spooler is 67 years old and came here from Flatsburg, Ind., where he has a brother living. At twenty minutes of 2 o'clock this morning Mrs. Ashbrook was awakened by a noise in Spooler's room, but she paid no attention to it.

When she arose this morning to prepare breakfast she went into the yard and found the aged man lying unconscious across a wooden walk, face downward. He was unable to move or speak.

The supposition is that Spooler returned home last night in a dazed condition, and while under the influence of liquor stepped out on a side porch and fell off, as a window of his room was raised.

Spooler fell about twelve feet, and it is not known now whether he will survive the shock.

A FULL DINNER PAID

It Was Presented to Secretary Taft at Fort Scott, Kas.

Fort Scott, Kas., Aug. 27.—Secretary Taft was given a unique reception when he passed through Fort Scott. A committee of citizens, bringing luncheon in a massive tin bucket, met the train at noon.

The bucket was constructed strictly after the style of the laboring man's dinner pail, with a coffee cup on top, tray, etc., would hold six gallons and was made to typify a full dinner pail.

The campaign cry pail bore the inscription, "Fort Scott—Taft, 1908," and was presented to the secretary, who received it with rare good humor and ate with evident relish the splendid luncheon it contained.

Secretary Taft is traveling today, he having left Springfield this morning. He will reach Kansas City this evening. No speeches are scheduled for today.

Fell From a Telephone Pole.

Louis Miller, a lineman for the Bell Telephone Co., fell a distance of twenty feet from a telephone pole just before the noon hour today and badly sprained both ankles.

Drs. Shirk & Cole were summoned and removed the patient to his home on Prospect avenue, where he will be confined for some time.

THE CROPS AND TRADE.

There is every indication that the crops of this year, north and south, will be good and probably full, without being redundant. Foreign demands for wheat are likely to be better than usual. The Liverpool Corn Trade News figures for the entire world that the wheat requirements are 73,600,000 bushels above the supplies, and that paper puts the requirements 47,200,000 bushels lower than the Beerbehn estimates. These figures indicate an active and very likely demand for American cereals.

With ample crops and rather high prices, the amount of money that will flow into the pockets of farmers will be enormous. Of course, it's too soon to make estimates in figures, but we may be pretty sure that the money value of this year's crops will exceed that of any previous year, and for several years the crop values have been monumental.

These crop prospects mean two things of the utmost importance to the community—the farmers will reduce their indebtedness, setting capital free to seek other investments and they will buy freely. When farmers are buying freely there are good times for manufacturers and merchants.

The farming class is a very large one, and its prosperity is certain to be diffused through the community.
The crop prospects are an ample assurance of another good year of business.

The other thing, which is really a part of this, is that the movement of these crops will give ample employment to the railroads; they will pay good dividends and will be large buyers of the products of iron and steel.

Railroad earnings covering half the mileage of the country were 11.52 per cent greater last month than in July, 1906. For seven months of the calendar year they were 10.24 per cent greater than a year ago.

With increased wages and prices of course net earnings are not keeping pace with this, but these increased expenses merely mean a difference in the way the gross earnings are diffused through the community.

The net earnings in May were 17 per cent greater than a year before, and for five months they were 7 per cent greater than a year before, and it is in the latter part of the year that the railroads feel the impetus of heavy crops. There is no trouble in sight except to holders of overvalued stocks and to speculators.

SOME PHASES OF THE STRIKE.

What queer summer lassitude has seized over the newspapers of the country, asks the Fourth Estate, that many of the more prominent among them make no editorial remark on the strike of the telegraph operators? Are good live subjects for discussion so plentiful in the sweltering dog days that a little matter like the finish fight between the operators and their employers can be pigeon-holed for future consideration? Would rays of editorial light on a subject vitally associated with newspaper work be brighter if they were not turned in until Christmas snowflakes are whirling? Or is the reputation of the American press for frank and fearless utterance taking a vacation?

The New York papers took up the question early in the strike, but their Chicago contemporaries, while printing the news, ignored it in their editorial columns.

That the issues of the case are not made clear by the strikers' leaders is no reason for the strange—one might even say the timid—reluctance of the papers to take up the question, whatever their grievance may be, and Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill says he is unable to figure out the precise nature of the issue.

The methods of the operators were much like those of an enemy who would clap a pistol to your temple and invite you to arbitrate while he held it there. If the telegraphers' union was merely waiting for an opportunity to try conclusions with the companies, it should at least fight according to rule.

The conviction that the rights of the public were violated by a sudden strike, with no opportunity for peaceful settlement, has deprived the strikers of the sympathy that might other-

TRAPPED BY A NEGRESS

Was the Minister, But He Held Her
Until the Police Arrived.

Rev. Dr. William L. Collins, of Orange, Cal., was the victim of the "Tenderloin" district last night as he was on his way to the Union station at Tenth and Broadway, says a Louisville, Ky. dispatch. He was relieved of his purse containing $70.

At the corner of Seventh and Grayson streets he was summoned into a house by a small negro girl who seemed to be in distress. Dr. Collins entered the house to render any assistance he could. No sooner had he entered than he was accosted by a negro woman, who touched him for his pocketbook, but the minister caught and held her until the police arrived.

NO PEACE IN SIGHT NOW

THERE IS NO CHANGE IN SITUA-TION OF THE TELEGRAPH
ERS' TROUBLES.

FIGHT IS ON THE WESTERN UNION

Very Little Attention Paid to the Postal—President Small Has Failed to Meet the Officials of the Companies.

New York, Aug. 27.—No attempt was made yesterday by National President Small, of the Commercial Telegraphers to reach the officials of the telegraph companies, and the attitude of the companies was not encouraging.

The Western Union officials reiterated that they will not see Small or any other labor leaders, that there can be no arbitration under any circumstances, and that for any influence Small may have on the local situation, as far as the company is concerned, he might as well have remained in Chicago.

Little attention is being paid to the Postal situation by the strike leaders, who admit that the fight is mainly directed against the Western Union company.

A report was given out at the headquarters of the strike leaders that the Western Union officials were considering the proposition of sending a fake telegram throughout the country over the signature of President Small, declaring the strike off.
When Superintendent Brooks, of the Western Union was asked about this he said the report was too preposterous to waste any time talking about.

As to how the strike might end,
Mr. Brooks said the company was not worrying. None of the strikers could ever come back except by application as individuals and taking their chances as new operators.

Several statements were made during the day by National President Small, of the telegraphers. Summed up, they were to the effect that the operators of the Western Union company were so overworked that a number were in danger of collapse; that there was no chance of arbitration now, but that any plan that was fair would be acceptable when the proper time came; that the companies were bound to lose the fight, and that the strikers were assured of financial aid that would enable them to hold out for six months if necessary.

Companies Will Not Meet Strikers.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Peace overtures on the part of the striking telegraph operators will prove futile. That was the declaration yesterday of the local superintendent of the telegraph companies. While the strikers are electing a representative from each of the telegraph districts to be in readiness to act, the companies declare that they will refuse to meet such a committee.

"Nothing will come of the election of a committee by the striking operators," declared Superintendent T.
P. Cook, of the Western Union company. "The companies will not meet with the strikers. We have thirty more operators at work today than we had Saturday. These men all came from the east. We are improving the service every day. There is just one way that peace can be brought about and that is through the strikers returning to work. We will hire our former employees as we need them, and that is all there is to it."

Superintendent Capen, of the Postal company, talked in the same strain, and said he was confident there would be no conference held with any committee of former employees. "The election of a peace committee does not interest the telegraph companies in the least," said Mr. Capen. "We are in exactly the same position as we were the first day of the strike. We determined then that our former employees would have to return and apply individually for positions when they tired of striking, and that is our position today. There is not the slightest possibility of the officials of the Postal company meeting any committee."

At the headquarters of the telegraphers the national officers appeared as confident as ever that a conference would be held when the proper time arrived. Secretary Wesley Russell said:

"We are getting along very nicely and can stand this sort of thing for several weeks, or more if necessary.
If the companies can stand it so much the better for them. The business interests, however, are beginning to demand better service, and when the pressure become strong enough I think the companies will be glad to meet a committee of employees. We can afford to wait."

SOUGHT TO KILL HIMSELF

Son of a Russian Banker Faces a Madhouse.

Elkhart, Ind., August 27.—Last week a young Russian, of evident high birth, attempted to kill himself here by throwing himself from the window of a Lake Shore train. He was severely injured, and was taken to Clark hospital. A ticket from Lorain, Ohio, to Salt Lake City, Utah, was found in his pocket.

Developments showed that the youth was suffering from hallucinations, believing enemies were seeking to assassinate him with dynamite. He gave the name of Isaac Reichenstein, and papers and letters in his clothing proved that he is the son of wealthy parents, his father being a banker at Kiev.

At the hospital Reichenstein made two more unsuccessful attempts to end his life. Twice he turned on the gas in his room, after plugging up the doors and windows with wads of paper. An insanity commission in Justice Brumbaugh's court found him insane and recommended that he be sent to Longcliff asylum. Here the officials encountered a difficulty, for Reichenstein is not a resident of the state. Justice Brumbaugh has notified the Russian consul at Chicago.

BUILD THREE HIGHWAYS

"NORTH," "CENTRAL" AND "SOUTH" ROADS FROM ST. LOUIS TO KANSAS CITY.

FEDERAL AID IS NOW TO BE URGED

Delegates Think More Should Be Spent for Roads, Less for Warships—Farmers Along Routes Willing to Help.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 27.—Is Missouri to have one, two or three state highways between St. Louis and Kansas City? The meeting held here Monday indicates the greater number, resolutions and recommendations practically tending in that direction having been adopted unanimously.

The meeting held by the state board of Agriculture Aug. 5 was primarily for the submission of recommendations favorable to the construction of one such road, but before the meeting was finally adjourned two of the three proposed routes were endorsed.

At yesterday's meeting, participated in by the county courts or delegated representatives of those courts, from the following counties: Franklin, Cole, Gasconade, Osage, Cooper, Moniteau, Pettis, Cass, Johnson, St. Charles, Jackson, Montgomery, Callaway, Boone, Howard, Lafayette, Saline, Pike, Lincoln, Randolph, Audrain, Chariton, Ray, Clay and Carroll, it was determined on a rising vote that the delegates pledge themselves unitedly to support all three of the routes.

Former Lieutenant Governor "Bob" Campbell, of Pike county, spoke along these lines, suggesting that the state board of agriculture be requested to give the northern route the same preliminary survey that had been given the central and the southern routes. George Robertson, of Audrain county, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the delegates representing the counties along the three routes, the southern, the central and the northern, recommend to the state board of agriculture that it lend the same assistance and give the same encouragement to each of the three routes, and that it aid the people along such of the said routes with the assistance of the state highway engineer, so that there will be at least three state highway routes."

J. W. Barron, of Callaway county, thought the proposition a good one, and that when it became necessary to raise funds for the building of these roads the federal government should be asked to help. Let "Uncle Sam," he said, build fewer battle-ships and distribute their cost among the states of the union, to be expended for road building, and he will confer more benefits on a greater number. Then Mr. Barron thought if this would not do the property owners should pay one-fourth, the counties one-fourth and the state the other half.

Governor Folk, in addressing the meeting, said this matter of proposed highways was "no longer an experiment. We are going to build these highways. The movement can not but end in success."

The sentiment met with a responsive echo, pretty nearly every one in the convention having something to say expressive of the earnestness of the people of his county, and their readiness to do all that it was possible to do in promoting the construction of the roads.

C. F. Clark, of Audrain county, has 2,000 acres of land along the northern route, and George Robertson, who explained that Mr. Clark, though himself present, was too modest to say so, would contribute $1 per acre toward the construction of that route. To this Mr. Clark gave ready assent, and said he thought all the other land owners could afford to give a like contribution per acre, as it would prove beyond all question a profitable investment.

Andrew J. Jones, of Cass county, said that by popular subscription $2,000 had already been raised there and paid into the county treasury for the purpose of building the road from Pleasant Hill to the Jackson county line, thus providing for such portion of the road as traversed that county.

Presiding Judge Patterson, of the Jackson county court, said the state would not be asked to build a highway into or through that county so as to touch any particular town, but the county would meet the state road wherever it touched the county line.

Frank Buffum, of Pike county, read a telegram from the Chicago and Alton, which expressed its willingness to aid in the good roads movement, and agreeing to haul rock for good roads purposes at a rate of one-half a cent per ton per mile.

State Highway Engineer Hill told the convention that the right of way for these proposed highways should be 60 feet wide, which would include the dirt road on the side of the rock road. He thought the rock road should be ten inches deep in the center and from six to seven inches on the sides.

CLINTON CARNIVAL OFF

Mr. LeBurno, Now Showing Here, Has Canceled Date There.

The following is from the Clinton Democrat of Monday afternoon:

The carnival is off. Agent Wilson, of the LeBurno company, after talking with Mr. LeBurno this afternoon, said to the Democrat:

"Mr. LeBurno will not bring his carnival to Clinton. We have been held up on every side, until we can not see our way to complete our date here.

"We have to pay a big county license, and a bigger city license. We have to take a lot off the square and pay what we regard as an excessive price for lights.

"Other things run the same way until Mr. LeBurno lost patience. If the people of Clinton don't want us or expect to make us lose big money if we come, we have been fortunate to find out without going any further with our plans."

THE TELEPHONE GIRLS HERE DON'T DO LIKE THOSE AT STATE CAPITAL.

LATTER OUT ON A MIDNIGHT LARK

Were Driving With Two Young Men From the Kingdom of Callaway—Quartette Arrested and Boys Fined.

Bertha and Bulah Sheldon, two girls employed as operators at the Capital Telephone company, were arrested Sunday morning at 2 o'clock in company with two young men from Callaway, says Monday's Jefferson City Democrat. The Kingdom sports gave their names as Jack Wade and George Mansfield. The latter vows he is no relation to the noted actor, Richard Mansfield, but he claims to have sporting blood in his veins and says he don't care who knows it.

Wade is employed at Mokane and is said to be the chief cut-up of the village. These two young men and the "hello" girls got into a carriage Saturday night about the time the lid was closing down over the city.

The lid proposition, however, did not disturb these merry-makers, because they had provided against such a contingency, besides starting the ship with enough supplies to last until the end of the cruise, whenever that might be. Loaded both outwardly and inwardly, the good ship set out toward the Moreau.

No water being at hand, the party had to resort to the supply box quite frequently. They had a good time. But when the sea sickness wore off trouble began to brew among the crew with the result that one of the girls took to her heels out at Rackers' place near the Moreau and went in and telephoned for the sheriff.

Sheriff Scott and Deputy Jim Jobe were soon on the spot and arrested the quartette and took them to jail. Monday morning bright and early, the dawn of the morning after, they were arraigned before Judge Harding.

He set the two boys back $22 each and let the girls off with a good talking. All plead guilty to save the trouble of a trial. The boys have gone back home sadder, but wiser youths.

Pittman Endorses Gregg Shorthand

THE BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD FOR YOU

The Following letter from the nephew of Sir Isaac Pittman, originator of Pitman's Shorthand, needs no comment:

86 & 87 Fleet Street, London, E. C., England, July 29, 1907.
John R. Gregg, Esq.,
Chicago, U. S. A.

Dear Mr. Gregg:

I have watched for some time the remarkable progress of Gregg's Shorthand. It seemed to me that the continued success of a comparatively new system was evidence that it must have some substantial advantages over other systems. I decided to make a fair and independent investigation of the system on my own account. You will readily understand that one who has lived in the atmosphere of Pitman's Shorthand, as I have, would find it exceedingly difficult to regard other systems without "envy, hatred and malice and all uncharitableness." Yet as I continued the study of the Gregg System I was amazed at its logical and practical arrangement and the absence of "Exceptions to Rules." The ease with which I acquired the system, even after having written the older style twenty-eight years, was almost incredible—I was even more surprised at the completeness and brevity of the outlines and the facility with which they could be written. Your system is based on scientific principles, applied in a scientific way, and I believe that it is destined to become the shorthand of the English-speaking people.

Faithfully yours,

C. PITMAN.

PREDICTS WORLD'S END

PREACHER SAYS IT WILL COME WITHIN FORTY DAYS FROM JULY 23.

WHAT IS THE USE OF WORRYING

Wife Says She Is Tired of Gallivanting, Hence Is Anxious to Leave New York and Return to State of Arkansas.

New York, Aug. 27.—Though he is certain that the voice of God told him on July 23 that the world would come to an end in forty days, and commanded him to go and preach the doctrine of repentance to all mankind, the Rev. Samuel Wilhite, of Baxter county, Ark., but more recently of London, will return to Arkansas, not because he has lost faith in the vision, but because Mrs. Wilhite is of the opinion that if the world must come to an end so soon, it might as well find her in Arkansas.

"Seeing as how Mrs. Wilhite looks at it that way and the young people want to get home, too, and the people here allow they are willing to pay for totting us all back to Arkansas," said Mr. Wilhite, "I suppose we might as well go home, though I don't know where we are going to live when we get there."

Mr. Wilhite, who is 43 years old, is a native of the Cumberland mountains of Tennessee, and is about four years his wife's senior. They have been married ten years and have five children, the eldest of whom is 9 years old and the youngest six months. Up to July 24 they lived in Baxter, where he made a living at farming and running a small store.

The day before their departure, he says, the Lord appeared to him in the form of a loud voice, and told him to go forth and tell the world it was to be destroyed in forty days.

"I don't believe in no church," said the preacher, "and I haven't for a long time. When I was 20 I had religion, as you folks call it, and joined the Baptist church and was ordained. That wasn't what I wanted, according to the voices from God, so I joined the Campbellites. They weren't much better; so for the last eight years I've been preaching the word of God has given it to me."

"I usually work for awhile, and then go away for a short trip preaching. Up to this time I have left the family at home. But this time I give my farm away and sold what I had at give-away prices and went to London. There, they wouldn't let me preach, and after a lot of trouble, I came home. They didn't arrest me, but kept us moving. London doesn't want to be saved."

"I landed in Boston last Thursday, and they sent us over here. A lady at the station sent us to this place."

"No, I never converted anybody but my wife. You had better be converted, though, for the end comes next Saturday. It sure does, for the voice said so."

Mrs. Wilhite is not so enthusiastic over the prospect for the world ending so soon.

"I'm tired of gallivanting around with these children, with two of them here and the other three in Belleville, where they are being treated for a little rash, the doctors say is due to heat," said she. "If the world is going to come to an end, I don't know what it matters whether I am in New York or Arkansas. I have lived God's way, and I reckon I'll be saved as quickly there as anywhere else. If it don't end I'd rather be there with the little ones, anyway."

GETS CHANGE OF VENUE

Slayer of Prof. Mosier to Be Tried in Stone County.

Mount Vernon, Mo., Aug. 27.—The trial of Charles Heath, the slayer of Prof. Clarence Mosier, the well-known McDonald county educator, has been transferred to this county for trial.

The crime occurred February 22, last, near Pineville. Heath shot down Mosier in the road as he was en route to his lunch after Mosier had punished Heath's daughter, Lou.

The girl, the day previous, had fought the teacher with a stove poker when the teacher had attempted to reprimand her for some infraction of the school rules. Heath went to the teacher the morning of the killing and warned him neither to punish Lou nor make her leave school.

Public sentiment in McDonald county is much aroused over the murder and some of the best legal minds in the section have been employed on both sides in the case.

TEXAN KILLS A DOCTOR

WALKS INTO DALLAS POLICE STATION SAYING THE ACT WAS JUSTIFIABLE.

THE KILLING WAS DONE WITH AN AX

Following Early Morning Tragedy, Husband Takes Wife to Her Parents and Then Surrenders to Authorities.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 27.—D. B. Herring, a farmer, early Monday, with an ax, killed Dr. B. S. Schaseor, whom he found in his home, eighteen miles west of Dallas.

Herring walked into the Dallas police headquarters and told the police he wanted to surrender. He said that when he unexpectedly entered his home at 1 a. m. Sunday he found Dr. Schaseor in such a position that he was justified in killing him, under the "unwritten law."

After the killing, Herring took Mrs. Herring to the home of her parents, and then came to Dallas to surrender. Inasmuch as the tragedy occurred across the line in Tarrant county, the Dallas officers sent Herring to Fort Worth, the seat of Tarrant county.

BETTER CIGARS FOR LESS MONEY

This Is the Reason Why W. E. Bard Drug Co. Recommends Wads worth Bros' Chicos.

"In the last few months," said Mr. Bard, of the W. E. Bard Drug Co., "we have gained a wonderful sale for Wads worth Bros' Chicos." These cigars give better value for the money than any other we have ever seen. We take pride in giving our customers the best goods for the least money made and we recommend the Chicos to those who are smoking ten or fifteen cent goods.

Chicos have a long Havana filler, burn freely with a pleasant fragrance and are a mild and enjoyable smoke that pleases the most fastidious. It is only about once in a hundred times," Mr. Bard continued, "that we find a cigar equal to its manufacturer's claims, but in Chicos we found one even better, one that fully confirmed what Wads worth Bros. asserted, a better cigar for less money."

It sells for five cents straight, and as said before we recommend it to all who want a good cigar, no matter what the price.

SHE ELOPED ON CRUTCHES

Deserted, Husband Takes Steps to Protect, Fugitive.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 27.—Charles Formes, of 230 Warner avenue, has had the Union Trust company appointed receiver for all the funds that belong to himself and his wife. The wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Formes, has eloped, the husband says—eloped on a crutch and cane. With her went Hibbert Slocum, the husband says. He had the trust company appointed receiver for $4,500.

Three years ago the husband and wife were injured in a street car accident. They received $3,300 in damages from the company. This, with other savings, has been on deposit in the wife's name with the trust company.

A year ago Slocum was taken in by the wife while suffering from consumption, Formes says he cared for him until recently, when he disappeared. The next day the wife disappeared.

Then Mrs. Formes called up to the Indiana Trust company from Cincinnati and asked that the company identify her by telephone in order that she might get a check for $1,500 cashed. This the company refused to do. Since, however, the money is all in her name, the husband believes she can get it by calling for it unless the company is restrained.

Familiarity Between Employees Forbidden by Stillings.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Charles A. Stillings, public printer, has put a rule into effect at the government printing office whereby familiarity between the employees is frowned on.

No longer will they greet each other as "Charley," "Fatty," "Maggie" and "Gertie." They are directed to address each other as "Mr." and "Miss," or, if occasion requires as "Miz."

WIFE LOST BRIDEGROOM

NOT ONLY THAT, BUT A TRUNK THAT WAS WELL FILLED WITH MONEY.

SAYS BOTH HAVE DISSAPPEARED

"Uncle Paradise" Also Missing—He Accompanied Prosperous Hotel Keeper on Their Wedding Journey.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Lucinda Pervenger arrived in St. Louis Monday from Memphis in quest of a bridegroom and a treasure chest. The bridegroom is Herman Pervenger. He vanished from Little Rock during the few days preceding Aug. 5. Also there vanished a trunkful of money and his aged uncle, Alexander Paradise. Mrs. Pervenger is not worrying much about the missing Paradise, but she would like very much to find the missing bridegroom and the trunkful of treasure.

Pervenger was a hotel keeper at Memphis, March 9. Mrs. Lucinda Brassac became one of the guests. He was 47 and a bachelor. She was 54 or 64, she is not sure which, and she had been a widow twenty-two years. Six weeks later they went to Fulton, Ky., and were married. That was May 15.

He sold his hotel and added the money to his savings, which he kept in a trunk, around which, for security, was sewed a piece of carpet. She says there was thousands of dollars in the trunk.

He gave her $52 to buy a trousseau. She bought it and returned the change, $46, to him. She says she wanted to show him that she was not extravagant.

They stayed in Memphis until the latter part of July and then went to Little Rock, taking the aged uncle along. They stopped there at the Cleveland hotel.

She had been wanted to visit her niece in Dallas, Texas. Her husband thought that was as good a time as any. He put her on a train at midnight and told her to have a good visit. She returned to Little Rock Aug. 5. Her husband, the trunk and the aged uncle had disappeared.

She looked for them for a week, and the Little Rock police helped her, but they found no trace. She went back to Memphis and searched there in vain. She remembered that he had often expressed a wish to visit St. Louis, so she came here.

She will make a thorough search here in the hope that Pervenger is alive and here, but it is only a hope. She thinks he is dead, that he was slain for the contents of the money trunk.

Pervenger is short and stout and a good dresser, his wife says. He is dark and has small blue eyes and thin lips. His wife says she is uncertain as to her own age, because the records have been lost, but her husband did not care whether she was 54 or 64, as he did not marry her for looks, but for love.

WHICH STATE IS HE IN?

Atchison Man Running a "Joint" on an Island in the Missouri.

Atchison, Kan., Aug. 27.—Jacob Schillings, a "jointist," who had to leave here on account of the warrant issued by the attorney general a week ago is now running a "joint" on an island in the Missouri river opposite here. He did a rushing business Sunday. He is running under the protection of the uncertainty as to whether the island is in Missouri or Kansas. Patrons are carried to the island in row boats. Sunday four or five boats were in use and were kept coming and going as fast as possible.

The "joint" is in a tent which may be plainly seen from the bluffs in Atchison. The island is merely a sandbar, upon which the willows have been growing unmolested for a few years.

Last spring when the main channel of the river swung back to the Kansas side it cut away most of the island. The boundary line between the states of Missouri and Kansas is supposed to be in the center of the channel. There is a channel on both sides of the island.

After the Entertainment.
"She has a magnificent flat," said one, "but it is badly arranged. The parlor is too far from the dining room." "The wall paper is beautiful," remarked another, "but the pictures are abominable. It is a pity to ruin beautiful walls." "She has a lot of elegantly bound books," said still another, "but I'll be willing to wager a five that none of the leaves are cut." "In other words," said the man who looks on, "she has been awfully good to us. She has taken pains to entertain us. Let us roast her."

JUST TO WORRY THE POLICE

A Chicago Boy Explained Why He Robbed Houses.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 27.—"O, yes; I robbed the houses, all right. Why? Just for the fun of it, and to worry the police a little," is the explanation 17-year-old Lionel Lamoureux gives for several North side burglaries he has accomplished recently in company with an older and more experienced accomplice.

The young man will have a chance to tell Municipal Judge Beidler all about it tomorrow morning, when he will be arraigned on a charge of robbery. His father, J. A. Lamoureux, predicts that the judge will release him. "Lionel's sense of right and wrong is not fully developed," said the father, "and I am sure little difficulty will be experienced in getting him free."

PLEASED WITH CARNIVAL

The Opening Last Night Was a Splendid Success.

The Red Men's carnival opened at Liberty park last night. As is always the case on opening nights for such attractions, there was more or less confusion, but there was nothing of a very serious nature, and, taking it all in all, this carnival was better prepared for the initial performances than any previous like events held in Sedalia.

The attendance last night exceeded expectations, and the pleasure seekers were not disappointed.

The free shows are exceptionally high class, with "Counterfeit," the high-diving pony, taking the most thrilling part. The pony dives from a high platform into a tank of water. It is a stunt never before "pulled" off in Sedalia and of course proved the most attractive.

Other free exhibitions include trapeze performing.

The paid attractions include the dog and pony show, the Stadium, the Ferris wheel, the largest ever brought to Sedalia, moving picture shows, the electric theater and others. The shows ready for business last night received a liberal patronage and all were pleased.

The merry-go-round reached Sedalia last evening, and the work of installing it was started at once. It is expected to be in operation for tonight's performance.

We will meet on Thursday evening at Red Men's carnival in Liberty park. Be sure and be there and see the high-diving pony.

MAY WHIP WIFE'S MOTHER

Brooklyn Magistrate Lays Down Rule to Be Followed.

New York, Aug. 27.—At last the day of emancipation for mother-in-lawed husbands is at hand. That is, if the husband afflicted with one lives in a certain section of Brooklyn, which comes under the jurisdiction of Magistrate Voorhees. Yesterday the magistrate arrayed the forces of justice against mothers-in-law in general by declaring that Robert Pease, of No. 217 Fifty-first street, Brooklyn, had a perfect right to chastise his particular mother-in-law when her interferences became too annoying.

Pease was taken before Magistrate Voorhees on the charge of Mrs. Clara Cusack, his wife's mother, who swore he had entered her house a few days ago and knocked her out with one well directed blow over the eye.

Pease said that the particular offense of his mother-in-law, which proved the last straw, was the perpetration of what she considered a good joke last Wednesday. She sent a bundle to him while he was at work in a machine shop, and Pease opened it before a crowd of his fellow workmen. It proved to be an assortment of baby clothes, and Pease was laughed out of the building. He went straight to her home, and when he left it was several hours before Mrs. Cusack could get out of bed.

When Magistrate Voorhees heard this story, and that of numerous other jokes and annoyances, he declared Mrs. Cusack was lucky to get off as easily as she did.

S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

There is no other part of our physical system upon which so much depends as upon the blood. The muscles, nerves, bones, sinews, skin, and other portions of the body are sustained, developed and enabled to perform their different duties, because they are supplied with nourishment and healthful properties through the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A sluggish, inactive condition of the system, and torpid state of the avenues of bodily waste, will leave the refuse and waste matter of the body to sour and form uric and other acids, which are absorbed into the blood and Rheumatism, or some itching, disfiguring skin disease, is the result. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, spots, pimples, etc., all show that some humor has taken root in the circulation and rendered it sour and unfit for nourishing the body. There is scarcely any disease which cannot be traced to the blood. Often the disease-tainted blood of parents is handed down to children and their lives are a continual battle against disease in some form, usually of a scrofulous nature. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood troubles, and until this vital fluid is purified they cannot be cured. For all blood diseases S. S. S. is the best remedy ever put upon the market. This great medicine is made of roots, herbs and barks of recognized blood-purifying and building-up properties. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities and humors, supplies the blood with the healthful properties it needs and completely cures blood diseases of every kind. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., because it purifies the blood. Book on the blood and medical advice free.

LED THE WOMAN ASTRAY

MRS. DANIEL GARD HAS A PASSION FOR WM. GARD HER BROTHER-IN-LAW.

FILED SUIT FOR HEAVY DAMAGES

The Female in the Case Belongs to the Dunkards, and is All Right Outside of the Infatuation for Her Relative.

Lebanon, O., Aug. 27.—The filing of a civil suit here by Daniel Gard, of Carroll county, Ind., asking $3,000 damages of his brother, William A. Gard, reveals a strange story.

The damages are asked on the grounds that William alienated the affections of Daniel's wife, Lillie, and finally enticed her from her home to this city.

On the advice of attorneys, no criminal action has yet been filed, but it is understood that it may follow shortly.

Daniel and his wife were married some twenty-five years ago and have five children, the youngest two years of age.

About ten years ago, it is said, the wife left her home and went with William, but was soon induced to return.

Early in May, last, the eldest child, a daughter 19 years of age, began to suspect that her mother was again preparing to leave home and join William.

One day the mother went to Delphi, Ind., and then sent word home that she was going to work in a hotel in that place.

It was found, however, according to the story of Daniel, that she came on to Lebanon and secured work in a hotel. William was with her frequently, both going out with her and calling at her room in the hotel. One night his call was delayed until 4 o'clock in the morning, and the proprietor dispensed with her services.

She then went to live with William, it is said, in a cottage on the farm of John Collett, for whom William worked. Here it was that papers in the suit were served.

Mrs. Gard is said to be a member of the Dunkard sect, and to be of a pious nature, except for her alleged infatuation for her brother-in-law. She is also asserted to have contemplated bringing suit for divorce on the ground of incompatibility.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Trouble—A Sedalia Citizen Shows How to Cure Them. Cure Them.

Many persons never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary troubles set in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Sedalia people testify to permanent cures.

L. H. Oswald, living north of the cemetery, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know that they helped me. Whenever I caught cold or in damp weather my kidneys would get out of order, too frequent in action, and this disturbed my rest at night. I am a poor hand to take medicine, but as I read about Doan's Kidney Pills curing others of similar troubles and that they could be procured at the W. E. Bard drug store, I got a box and began taking them, and you are welcome to use my name as one of the many people here in Sedalia who can vouch for the merits of your valuable medicine."

News of the National Capital

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Since the country has had time to ponder over the recent speeches made by Secretary Taft in his tour of the west, the belief has gained ground rapidly that President Roosevelt finally has reconsidered his refusal to accept a second elective term, and that at the proper time he will gracefully and publicly yield to the importunities of his friends and accept the republican nomination next year. The tenor of the chief lieutenant's speeches, coupled with his well known leaning toward the bench, would indicate that Secretary Taft is stump-speaking for Mr. Roosevelt. Of course, the secretary's utterances bear the stamp of his individuality in their expression and details, but as regards the platform which he laid down, Rooseveltian policies were everywhere strikingly evident, and there are many who believe that Mr. Taft's defense of his chief's administration has been far more fervid than it would have been had he desired to promote his own candidacy. The secretary of war knows that the country does not take kindly to the idea of the president naming his own successor, and realizes that he can do better for himself if he will stand alone. Judging from his words, therefore, it is believed that, not desiring the nomination himself, he is only paving the way for his friend and chief.

Since Brigadier General MacKenzie, chief of the army engineer corps, announced a tentative itinerary of the inspection of the Mississippi river to be made by President Roosevelt early in October, interest has revived in the forthcoming deep waterway convention at Memphis and in the whole plan of river and harbor improvement work to be undertaken this fall. The growth of the sentiment in favor of waterways betterment truly is remarkable; and it is not confined to this country alone, but is gaining ground as rapidly in Europe and in all the world nations. In the United States, where the mania for speed reached its greatest extent, the railroads were developed and the rivers allowed to choke up with sand and mud. The vast commercial importance of scientifically improving them was not appreciated until the National Rivers & Harbors congress was organized early in 1901. Since that time this organization has labored in season and out to impress upon the merican people and upon their representatives in congress the vital necessity for the comprehensive and systematic development of the nation's waterways. Thus far its work has been more than successful, but with each succeeding year it grows increasingly difficult to obtain from the national legislators adequate appropriations for the continuance of work under way and the beginning of new projects. Just at this time, therefore, the National Rivers and Harbors congress is putting forth determined efforts to double its membership, in order to become so representative of the whole country that congress must accede to its demands for regular annual appropriations of at least $50,000,000.

The reports which have been circulated concerning Secretary Root's contemplated resignation from the cabinet portfolio, coupled with the fact that he is taking the "rest cure" at a famous sanitarium near White Plains, N. Y., caused quite a stir here at the capital until it became known that the nervous prostration from which Mr. Root was reported to be suffering is nothing more serious or mind racking than the good old fashioned rheumatism. It was known here that Mr. Root had been hardworked, and was, consequently, somewhat "frayed about the edges" as regards his physical state, but when the stories first began to be circulated much concern was felt among his friends here. His physician recommended that he take exercise and plenty of it, so Mr. Root quietly hied himself to White Plains, where he could get the exercise while remaining in seclusion. He realized that he must get himself into better physical condition before starting out on his Mexican trip. He has kept in close touch with the state department, being informed of the progress of all deliberations at the Hague, and of all departmental business outside of routine work.

Another important appointment was made this week in the matter of providing instructors in the newly organized colleges of the political sciences of the George Washington University. This branch of the university until this year was known as the department of law and diplomacy, but with its ambition to become the great American graduate school about to be realized through the growth of the "greater university" endowment fund, the educational lines of the department were broadened and extended to meet the growing requirements of the government. Already the college numbers on its faculty some of the most famous scientists and jurists, which fact is calculated to bring about a speedier recognition of the university's claims to supremacy in the educational life of the western hemisphere. The latest addition to the faculty of the university is Dr. Howard Lee McBain, who comes of a famous old southern family. Dr. McBain for a number of years was engaged in educational work in Richmond, but has been pursuing graduate studies in this country and abroad since 1901. He has just reached Washington from the Jamestown exposition, where he has been lecturing in the educational collection recently held there.

A reform movement is sweeping Washington, directed against all forms of gambling, and as a result the police have raided and closed a number of bucket shops. Several weeks ago the authorities began a crusade against handbooks in an effort to stamp out betting on horse racing, and not a few pool room proprietors have been put out of business with heavy fines or imprisonment. The raid of the bucket shops was the next step in the anti-gambling fight, and cases against the proprietors now are being worked up from the books and other papers seized by the police. The crusade is being vigorously pushed by District Attorney Baker, and has caused no little consternation among the class who operate these get-rich-quick concerns.

Speaking of criminals it has been decided that this element in Washington will in the future be dumped down in New Jersey. Just as if that state didn't have enough undesirable citizens, with the steady influx of low class immigrants! The queer part of it all is that New Jersey is rather anxious to get the naughty people from Washington; at least no protest has been made by her citizens. The way of it is this. The penitentiary at Trenton has been designated by the attorney general to be the receiving station for all prisoners from the District of Columbia. Until December, 1903, the District prisoners were sent to the New Jersey penal institution to serve out their sentences, but since then Monmouthville, W. Va., has been the place of their involuntary residence. The order of the attorney general, taking effect this week, changes all this, and hereafter persons convicted of crime in the District will be sent to Trenton as of yore.

Treasury department clerks were made glad this week when it was determined by the comptroller of the currency that they can be paid for the month of August after 12 o'clock on the 31st. The last day of the month falls on Saturday, and it is a half holiday, and Labor day comes on Monday. It was thought that the clerks would have to wait over until their return to work on Tuesday before getting their respective allotments of public moneys. As many had planned week-end trips to nearby watering places and mountain resorts over Sunday this would have meant a hardship in a number of cases. Acting Secretary Reynolds submitted the matter to the comptroller for decision, and he has decided that the day's business being ended at noon

PREPARE FOR REVENGE

Germs in Dust Raised by Automobiles Are Fatal.

Eastport, N. Y., Aug. 27.—A death here, directly attributed by physicians to inhaling disease germs in the dust raised by automobiles, has increased the hostility of the farmers and others living in the eastern end of Long Island against automobile traffic.

There has been a severe drought in this section of Long Island, and consequently the roads have been dusty this summer. Early in the season many of the residents contracted a disease of the throat due to the germs in the flying dust raised by automobiles.

Characterized by chills, sore throat and nausea, it generally terminated in a few days, leaving the victim as well as before. The recent death of one of its victims, however, and the serious illness of others from the same malady, have produced more antagonism against the automobiles than ever before existed.

ATE MEALS AT ONE HOME

But Slept at Another and it Caused Trouble.

Chillicothe, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Eating his meals at a cozy little home with one wife and sleeping a few squares away at a hotel with a second wife is the remarkable record of Dennis Lightle, a machinist, who was arrested on the charge of bigamy.

Five years ago at his home in Slate Mills, Lightle married Nancy Lisle, of Huntington township. They have one child 4 years old. Several months ago he went to Indiana, won the heart of Ada Leasure, of Logansport, and they went to Columbus three months ago and were married.

After living in Indiana for a little over a month Lightle brought his second wife back to this city and ensconced her at the Nelson house. He was working at Copley's machine shop, on South Point street, and his first wife was keeping house near his place of work.

A friend of the first wife tipped the arrangement off to her and she hunted up the second Mrs. Lightle. She then had Lightle arrested. When he was brought to the station both repented and began weeping. The first wailed that she could never be happy with Dennis behind the bars, but Dennis was marched to the rear just the same.

WANT THE "LID" KEPT ON

AN INJUNCTION SUIT IS TO BE BROUGHT IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY NOW.

BASED ON SALOON MAN'S CHARTER

Assistant Attorney General Kennish left Jefferson City Monday night for St. Louis to push prosecution.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 27.—It has been definitely determined to ask for a writ of injunction against the Louisiana club, the St. Louis county resort operated by Mark Gumberts, and Assistant Attorney General Kennish left for St. Louis county last night to make application for the issuance of the injunction before Special Judge Ryors today.

This step was suggested to Mr. Kennish while he was in St. Louis county, Saturday, and he advised Gov. Folk by long distance telephone of his intention to take it, expressing the belief that it would put Gumberts out of business.

He also called the attention of the governor to the fact that the charter of the Louisiana club did not authorize it to do business in St. Louis county at all.

After considering the matter for a time, the governor agreed with Mr. Kennish's proposed course, and it has been determined to make that a feature of the fight against the club.

Should this injunction be granted, it is more than probable that similar proceedings will be begun against a number of the other clubs, but on somewhat different lines, because they have charters in which their location is given as being in the county, while the Louisiana club charter places the home of the club in St. Louis city.

It has not been determined in whose name the proceedings against the Louisiana club will be brought, because it was contemplated at one time to bring it in the name of a saloon keeper adjoining the club, who meets the requirements of the law as to license and such matters and is denied the privilege which Gumberts, who pays no license, has taken.

It may, however, be brought in the name of the attorney general, with prosecuting attorney Johnson, of St. Louis county, named as associate to the state's officer.

A YOUTHFUL COUPLE

Groom of 101 Takes Wife He Wished When Adams Was President.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 27.—A great crowd assembled in a tent at Tate Springs Sunday to witness the marriage of John Burdon, 101 years old, and Miss Rose McGuire, a sweetheart of his youth.

The happy woman also is well up in years, this being her 100th birthday. The tent was erected on the spot where Burdon and his sweetheart kept secret trysts when John Quincy Adams was president.

"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Arlington Pharmacy.

REGARDING RAILROADS

FOUND THE IRON MOUNTAIN IN BETTER SHAPE THAN ANTICIPATED.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Rube Oglesby came in Sunday morning from St. Louis, where he had been with the board of railroad commissioners on an inspecting tour of the Iron Mountain railroad from St. Louis to the Arkansas line, says Monday's Warrensburg Star. Mr. Oglesby says the report of the commission will be given to the press and served on the railroad about Tuesday. He said the road was really in better shape than the commission expected to find it, but that there was lots of work needed to perfect it.

The speed limit was reduced on about twelve miles of track. "All along the road," said Mr. Oglesby, "we found large gangs of section men making repairs; putting in new ties and steel, and when the work is completed the Iron Mountain in Missouri will be in excellent condition."

TRAGEDY IN A HOTEL

Woman Killed by Man Who Afterwards Committed Suicide.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Charles A. Andrews, a former restaurant owner at Elkhart, Ind., shot and killed Linda Ethel Blaine, of Flora, Ind., in a room at the Saratoga hotel yesterday afternoon, and then mortally wounded himself with the same revolver. He died while being taken to a hospital. Andrews and his companion had registered at the hotel last Saturday as Charles Andrews and wife, South Bend, Ind., but after the tragedy the police learned from letters in the man's baggage that the woman was one with whom he had become acquainted months ago, and because of her had left his wife and son and had traveled about the country with her. The cause of the tragedy is unknown. The couple came to the hotel late at night and registered under the names given above. Nothing was seen or heard of them until the sound of a revolver shot was heard. An occupant of an adjoining room rushed in and found the woman dead on the floor with two bullet wounds in the head. Andrews was standing over her with a revolver in his hand, the blood flowing from his head. The police were summoned, and Andrews was taken to a hospital, but died just as he reached there. There was no sign of a struggle between the pair.

AFTER THE GAMBLERS

District of Columbia Campaign Under the President's Direction.

Washington, Aug. 27.—President Roosevelt is interested deeply in the movement against gambling in the District of Columbia. He is more than co-operating with the authorities.

The campaign is made under his direction. He has thoroughly impressed upon the district commissioners his determination, announced in one of his speeches, to make Washington a clean city.

As the commissioners are his appointees, and can be removed at his pleasure, it is not surprising that the incumbents show zeal in the work cut out for them.

The president also is giving hearty federal co-operation in the efforts to make Washington a clean city from a sanitary standpoint. The health officers of the government are assisting the district health office and from the marine hospital service work is being done in this direction.
